

The Warren County Genealogical Society would like to have their Web Site considered for the Thomas A. Edison Award for the Outstanding Chapter Web Site.

Our website is located at <http://www.co.warren.oh.us/genealogy/index.htm>

Using server space graciously provided for us on the Warren County Government server, the website has been on line since 2002, providing our members and others with access to genealogical resources available in Warren County.

OGS activities
